

Theresa Leahy

Teaching Experience:

Since moving to north Clare six years ago, Theresa has involved herself in the dramatic arts throughout the county.

She facilitates the Clare Youth Theatre based in Glor Ennis and has directed their annual show for the past 3 years.

She is an acting coach with Stage Coach Theatre School in Ennis.

Theresa has run many acting courses for theatre groups including The Burren players in Lisdoonvarra and the Kinvarra Theatre group. She has taught singing and acting to children in Ballyvaughan, Fanore, New Quay, Carron and Ennistymon.

This summer in conjunction with Limelight Productions she was acting coach in a week long summer school in Doolin.

Acting Experience:

Theresa has a diploma in acting from the Dublin School of Acting.

Theresa is currently rehearsing the part of Crystal in Kissing Sid James with Stone Mad Theatre company. The play will tour throughout Ireland later this year.

This summer Theresa played the part of Deirdre in the movie Seaside Stories directed by Fergus Tighe of Galvinating Productions.

Theresa has played in numerous plays and received a best actor's award in the All Ireland acting festivals.

Theresa has also received awards for singing at the Feis Ceoil. She was a founding member of the RTE Philharmonic Choir and was a member until her move to county Clare.
